

INTERVIEW SCRIPT

Introduction

Hi, _____. My name is Savanna, and I’m going to be walking you through this session today. We’re conducting interviews to better understand how people approach learning a new subject and vocabulary. The session should take 15 - 20 minutes.

The first thing I want to make clear right away is that this is not a test. You can’t do or say anything wrong here. In fact, this is probably the one place today where you don’t have to worry about making mistakes. If you have any questions as we go along, just ask them. And if you need to take a break at any point, just let me know.

OK, let’s get started. I’d like to ask you just a few quick questions for a project I’m working on about education and learning new vocabulary

Bio

INDIVIDUAL INTERVIEW NOTES

Interview Questions

- 1. Can you walk me through your typical daily routine during the work week? (Job, hobbies, etc.)
- 2. How much spare time do usually have and how do you spend it?
- 3. When is the last time you learned something new? What made the experience enjoyable or unenjoyable?
- 4. Can you tell me about a time that you actively tried to learn new vocabulary? How did you go about it?
- 5. What were the downsides or the biggest challenges you experienced?
- 6. What do you think would make learning new vocabulary easier or more enjoyable?
- 7. What is your biggest motivator for learning new things? What helps keep you consistent?
- 8. Is there anything else that you want to say, or something that I didn't ask that you feel I should know?

Notes & Quotes